- In an effort to counteract the Thai Government's decision to send a Thai expeditionary force to Korea, the Thai Communist Party cabled Wadsundhon Chamon in Peiping expressing its sympathy for the North Koreans. The message also stated that the majority of the Thai people would not follow the Thai Government in its support of the imperialists. The cable was dispatched to Wadsundhon to be relayed to KIM Il-sung, North Korean Fremier.
- 2. Bengkok listeners to the Peiping radio broadcusts report that a Thai voice with an American accent is broadcasting on the same frequency and mater band as the Chinese Communist station. This interference is most pronounced during the news broadcasts. Some listeners believe that the jamming broadcasts originate in Hawaii.
